

MODERN LANGUAGES

A level course in:

French

Ashby
Sixth Form

A level French

Why study A Level languages?

To communicate confidently, clearly and effectively in the foreign language through both the spoken and written word, using increasingly accurate, complex and varied language to sustain communication and build fluency and confidence.

To increase sensitivity to language and language learning.

To develop critical insights into, and contact with, the contemporary society, cultural background and heritage of countries or communities where the foreign language is spoken.

To learn transferable skills such as autonomy, resourcefulness, creativity, critical thinking and linguistic, cultural and cognitive flexibility which will enable you to proceed to further study or employment using languages.

TOPICS INCLUDE

Films:	Les Intouchables Au Revoir les Enfants
Book:	L'Etranger
History:	World War 2 in France and post war reconstruction

ASSESSMENT

EXAM STRUCTURE at A Level:

Component 1- Speaking (30%)

Component 2 - Listening, reading and translation (50%)

Component 3- Critical and analytical response in writing (20%)

Popular A level combinations?

French – Drama – English
French – Engineering – Physics
French – Engineering – Maths
French – Business studies – Maths
French – Maths – Physics
French – English – History
French – English – Biology

BASICALLY ANY COMBINATION!

WHAT DO A LEVEL LANGUAGE STUDENTS SAY?

You progressively improve
Builds confidence!
Understand other cultures
Gain transferable skills for your future career
Better understanding of current affairs...
In a foreign language!
Good for communication skills
Studying films
Learning about history (in French!)
Ability to use French in real life!
It's skills based and not just knowledge
Freedom to explore your interests in French
Listening is even fun – you can watch Netflix as homework (and at A level you can control the CD in the examinations!)
It's worth doing for the reaction you get when you tell people you can speak French!
It's fun!

Quotes from year 13 students learning languages in Ashby School

'I now know more about France than my own country!'
'I can actually read a book in French and understand it!'
'French was never a chore and you made it fun and more accessible'
'You have shaped my confidence in a huge way'

CONTACT INFORMATION

Nick Fitzpatrick Faculty Team Leader

n-fitzpatrick@ashbyschool.org.uk

www.ashbyschool.org.uk

Ashby School is an exempt charity & company limited by guarantee, registered in England. Company No 08126868, Nottingham Road, Ashby de la Zouch LE65 1DT.